

Real Estate

Real Estate

Our firm handles residential and commercial closings for purchasers, sellers, and lenders, protecting our clients' best interest in these significant transactions. Our residential mortgage department ensures a seamless process from inception to closing, handling the complex processes related to purchases and sales. Our commercial department handles matters including purchases, sales, loan workouts, and transactions for single to multi-use developments, including regional and national lending institutions, developers, and investors.

Zoning and Land Use

Our attorneys represent landowners and developers in front of local government, planning boards, and elected officials handling the various facets of the approval process in association with the development process regarding subdivisions, rezoning, site planning, and obtaining the necessary permits required for county, state, and federal laws.
