eFolio

Paul O. Sullivan concentrates his practice on employment law, education law, corporate law, criminal law, estate planning and litigation.

In addition to New York, Paul is admitted in the State of Florida and is involved in all aspects of litigation in both states, as well as handling estate and trust law, including ancillary proceedings and litigation involving Will contests in both states.

Paul represents many corporations and limited liability companies, taking them through the process of formation and continuing to counsel these entities in all aspects. Further, he counsels employees and employers through various aspects of employment and labor matters, including employment contracts, severance agreements, and human resource disputes, working to ensure compliance with local, state, and federal labor and employment laws, frequently solving these issues through arbitration and/or mediation.

He has extensive experience representing colleges and other educational institutions in disciplinary hearings, employment matters, tax-exemption issues, and trust litigation.
