

Rena M. O'Connor Partner

Rena M. O'Connor, a life-long Poughkeepsie resident, focuses her practice primarily on matrimonial and family law, general litigation and real estate.

Rena is dedicated to providing personalized legal support to individuals and families in matters that can be emotionally and financially challenging. Rena's legal aptitude and passion for her role as advocate and trusted advisor, coupled with the tremendous amount of respect she has garnered in both the legal community and from her clients, are undeniable assets to individuals and families involved in family law issues.

Rena is considered one of the leading matrimonial and family law practitioners in the area. In matters such as divorce, separation agreements, child custody and support, guardianship, spousal support, adoption and prenuptial agreements, clients can be assured that they will receive comprehensive guidance, advocacy, and legal protection.

Rena is one of the founding members of the Hudson Valley Collaborative Divorce & Dispute Resolution Association, Ltd. This innovative and interdisciplinary approach to divorce offers parties an alternative to litigation. Collectively, the parties work with their attorneys, divorce coaches, and financial specialists to reach an amicable settlement. This contemporary and cost-effective approach can be an excellent resource for those seeking an alternative route.
