

Alexandra C. Downey Associate

Alexandra joined Corbally, Gartland and Rappleyea, LLP as a first-year associate in 2017. Her practice focuses on construction law, commercial litigation, and tax certiorari. Alexandra assists clients to resolve or litigate disputes that arise throughout the construction process and during litigation.

CONTACT

ad@cgrlaw.com
tel 845 240 7310
fax 845 240 7311

AREAS OF PRACTICE

Litigation
Corporate / Construction
Employment Law

BAR ADMISSIONS

New York

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

Professional Women in Construction
New York State Bar Association
Dutchess County Bar Association

EDUCATION

Rhodes College, B.S., 2013
Brooklyn Law School, J.D., 2016

Alexandra received her law degree from Brooklyn Law School. Alexandra's legal experience also includes interning for the Honorable James D. Pagonis, Acting Justice of Dutchess County Supreme Court and Dutchess County Surrogate, and South Brooklyn Legal Services. Additionally, during law school, she was chair of a community service project that assisted family members in obtaining guardianship rights over their adult loved ones with developmental and intellectual disabilities.

Prior to attending law school, Alexandra attended Rhodes College in Memphis, Tennessee. In addition to working toward her educational goals, she also excelled on the Women's Division III Basketball Team.