

Alexandra C. Downey Associate

Alexandra joined Corbally, Gartland and Rappleyea, LLP in 2017. Her practice focuses primarily on construction law, litigation, estate planning, criminal law and real estate. Alex takes the time to listen to her clients in order to successfully meet clients' goals and expectations. In litigation matters, Alex honestly evaluates each matter to provide clients with the most candid legal advice to effectuate the best, and most cost effective results for clients.

Prior to joining Corbally, Gartland and Rappleyea, LLP, Alex served as an intern for the Honorable James D. Pagones, AJSC and Surrogate of Dutchess County. She also assisted family members in Article 17A proceedings to obtain guardianship rights over their adult loved ones with developmental and intellectual disabilities.

Alexandra is a Hudson Valley native. She received her law degree from Brooklyn Law School and attended Rhodes College in Memphis, Tennessee for her undergraduate degree, where she played on the Women's Division III Basketball team that advanced to the 2nd round of the NCAA tournament during her senior year.
