Our Bankruptcy and Creditor's Rights Law Department draws on the collective experience of attorneys expert in the areas of banking, corporate, and litigation law. We provide guidance for creditors, businesses, institutions, and individuals dealing with insolvent borrowers. Our department's goals are to avoid a lengthy bankruptcy or enforcement processes.

The department is dedicated to providing informed, proactive and insightful advice and representation to clients facing the uncertainty associated with insolvent/troubled borrowers.

Additionally, we regularly advise our business clients about workouts outside of insolvency. This includes the structuring and implementation of forbearance agreements, restructuring existing debt or arranging for new or additional debt financing or investment

We effectively manage these matters until the case is settled, the loan is paid off, or collateral is obtained.
